

COME AWAY NOW, EACH BELIEVER

Words and music by
James L. Clark

Tune: BROTHER'S KEEPER
8.7.8.7.[D]

may be sung in unison

1. Come a - way now, each be - liev - er, Come a - way from all your greed,
2. Look a - way now, see the world's strife, Look a - way be - yond clear skies,
3. Turn to o - thers in your car - ing, Turn to God, re - joice in hope,

Let not wealth be your de - ceiv - er, Let not rich - es be your need;
Let not self serve on - ly one life, Let not e - go blind the eyes;
Let not home de - fine your shar - ing, Let not race re - strict your scope;

Heed the Sav - ior's ad - mo - ni - tion That for o - thers you should do
Heed the Sav - ior's proc - la - ma - tion That for Him a grace is done
Heed the Sav - ior's terse com - mis - sion That be - liev - ers all must go

That which you in their con - di - tion Would that they should do for you.
When one gives in God's cre - a - tion To the least, as to the Son.
Through the world to seal Christ's mis - sion, Nev - er slight - ing friend or foe.
