

GETHSEMANE! GETHSEMANE!

Words and music by
James L. Clark

Tune: GOD'S GRIEF
8.8.8.8.[D]

1. Geth-sem - a - ne! Geth-sem - a - ne, Where Je - sus prayed to be set free,
2. Then Cal - va - ry! then Cal - va - ry, Be - cause the Son was not set free
3. Then emp - ty tomb! then emp - ty tomb, The sym - bol that ne - ga - ted doom

Where fur - rowed brow forced blood - y sweat, The Sav - ior grieved, His needs un - met;
Be - came the place of dread - ful pain, Where Je - sus seemed to die in vain;
Be - came the hope for end - less life, And place not marked by grief and strife;

Geth - sem - a - ne! Geth - sem - a - ne, Where God's own son was not set free,
But Cal - va - ry! but Cal - va - ry, Where hu - man - kind Christ could set free,
Then emp - ty tomb! then emp - ty tomb, The prom - ise that no more would loom

Where God his an - guish sure - ly felt, But can - celed not when Je - sus knelt.
Whose purg - ing blood, by God's de - cree, Would cleanse man's - soul, thus set him free.
The fear of death, with spec - ters rife, But prom - ise of e - ter - nal life.
