

HALLELUJAH, RESURRECTED!

Words and Music by
James L. Clark

Tune: Praises Ring
8.7.8.7.[4]

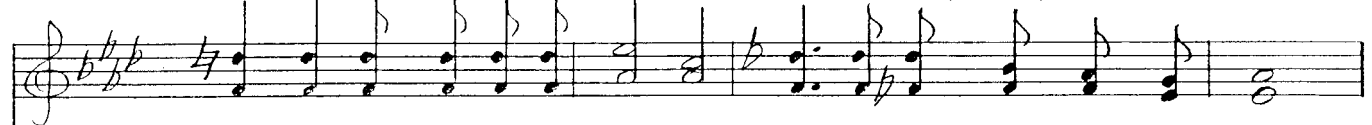

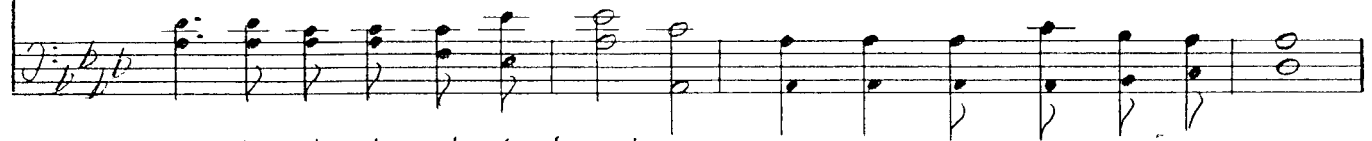

1. Hal-le-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ is ris - en from the grave!
2. Hal-le-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ is raised from death to life!
3. Hal-lu-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ in God now reigns on high!

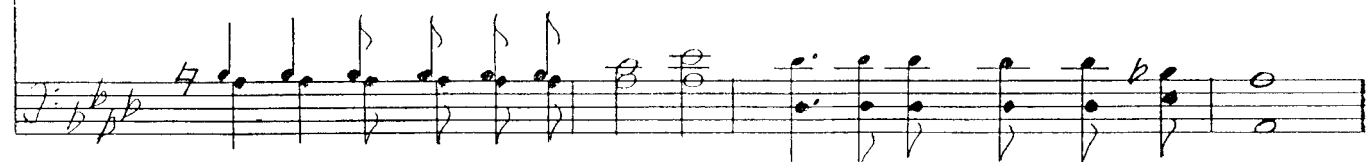

Bonds of death He has re - ject - ed, Now re - claimed the life He gave.
By the fa - ther not ne - glect - ed, Though God's plan al - lowed His strife.
By His power He has di - rect - ed That be - liev - ers nev - er die.

Hal - le - lu - jah, res - ur - rect - ed! Christ comes forth from stone-bound vault!
Hal - le - lu - jah, res - ur - rect - ed! Christ de - feats the threat of doom,
Hal - le - lu - jah, res - ur - rect - ed! Christ pro - vides e - ter - nal hope!

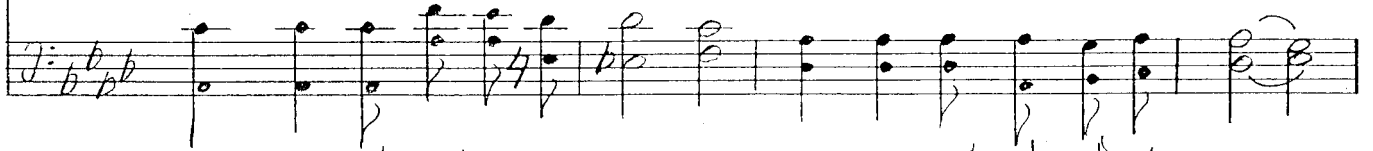

Power of men He has re - ject - ed, Power of God to now ex - alt.
Though by sol-diers not ne - glect - ed, They but watched an emp - ty tomb.
Those who trust are now di - rect - ed Toward a life past earth - ly scope.

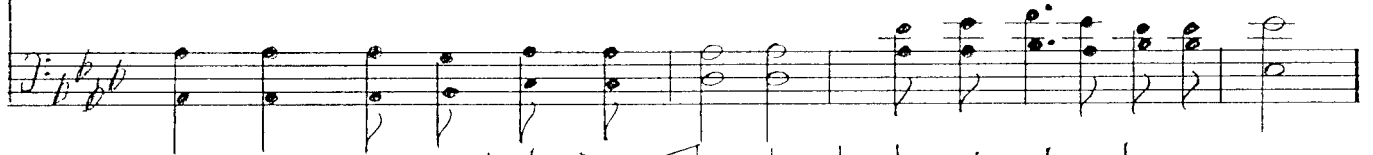

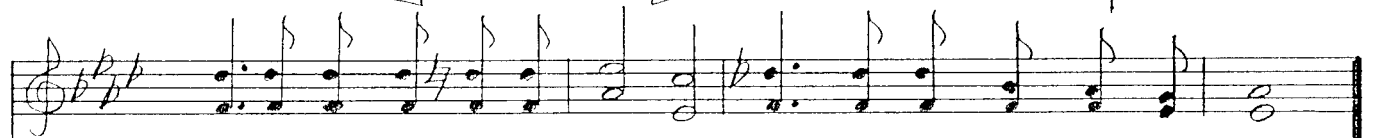

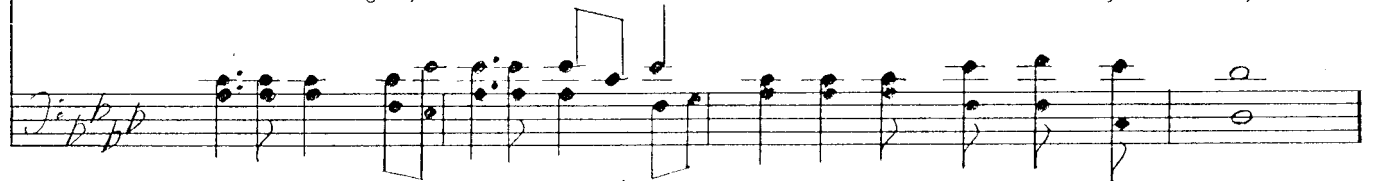

Prais - es ring from ev - ery moun - tain, Joy - ful songs rise from the plains,
Prais -- es ring from ev - ery moun - tain, Joy - ful songs rise from the plains,
Prais - es ring from ev - ery moun - tain, Joy - ful songs rise from the plains,

Where Christ's death was once life's foun-tain, Purged by life are blood-y stains.
Where Christ's blood flowed in life's foun-tain, Now are gone all blood-y stains.
Where Christ's pain once marked life's foun-tain, Nev - er - more its blood-y stains.

Hal-le-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ the Sav - ior lives to - day,
Hal-le-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ the vic - tor walks the world,
Hal-le-lu - jah, res-ur-rect - ed! Christ now calls to ev - ery soul,

Fear of death is now re - ject - ed By the souls who walk His way.
By be-liev - ers not ne - glect - ed, In His name their flag un - furled.
That all faith be - come di - rect - ed Toward His grace which makes one whole.
