Words and music by
James L. Clark

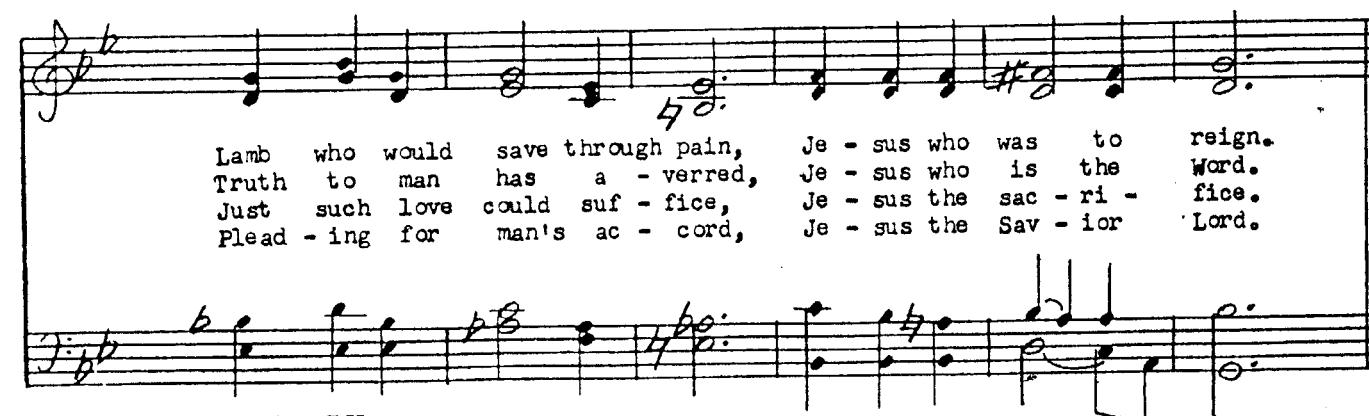

1. Je - sus who was fore - told,      Though He was God,      Be - hold!
2. Je - sus God's    on - ly son,      Pro - phet and priest in one,
3. Je - sus the    cru - ci - fied,      Shun - ning both power and pride,
4. Je - sus the    ris - en Lord      Fash - ioned the last re - ward,

Born in a sta - ble cold,      No earth - ly crib of gold.
Fought e - vil's curse and won,      Hav - ing of guile but none.
For sin - ful man has died,      And car - nal law de - fied.
Thwart - ing the spear and sword,      When from the grave He soared.

Je - sus who was to reign,      There in the straw was lain,
Je - sus who is the Word,      Loud through the a - ges heard,
Je - sus the sac - ri - fice,      Paid with His life sin's price;
Je - sus the Sav - ior Lord,      Now to God's side re - stored,

Lamb who would save through pain,      Je - sus who was to reign.
Truth to man has a - verred,      Je - sus who is the Word.
Just such love could suf - fice,      Je - sus the sac - ri - fice.
Plead - ing for man's ac - cord,      Je - sus the Sav - ior Lord.
