

O GOD OF RIGHT

Words and music by
James L. Clark

Tune: INFIDEL
L.M.

May be sung in unison

1. O God of right, help us to seek The ways where - by we free - ly speak
2. O God of right, help us to know When wor - ship - pers be come a foe
3. O God of right, help us en - dure What - ev - er must be to se - cure
4. O God of right, give us the strength To fight through - out the breadth and length

With those whose doc - trine calls for blood Of in - no - cents the streets to flood.
Be - cause they par - ley not for peace, Their sec - ret schem - ing nev - er cease.
Some hope for those to ter - ror born When death to in - fi - dels is sworn.
Of all the lands where ter - ror reigns To kill it and re - move its chains.

O God of Right, help us to seek
The ways whereby we freely speak
With those whose doctrine calls for blood
Of innocents the streets to flood.

O God of Right, help us to know
When worshippers become a foe
Because they parley not for peace,
Their secret scheming never cease.

O God of Right, help us endure
Whatever must be to secure
Some hope for those to terror born
When death to infidels is sworn.

O God of Right, give us the strength
To fight throughout the breadth and length
Of all the lands where terror reigns
To kill it and remove its chains.

O GOD OF RIGHT

Words and music by
James L. Clark

Tune: INFIDEL
L.M.

May be sung in unison

1. O God of right, help us to seek The ways where - by we free - ly speak
2. O God of right, help us to know When wor - ship - pers be come a foe
3. O God of right, help us en - dure What - ev - er must be to se - cure
4. O God of right, give us the strength To fight through - out the breadth and length

With those whose doc - trine calls for blood Of in - no - cents the streets to flood.
Be - cause they par - ley not for peace, Their sec - ret schem - ing nev - er cease.
Some hope for those to ter - ror born When death to in - fi - dels is sworn.
Of all the lands where ter - ror reigns To kill it and re - move its chains.

O God of Right, help us to seek
The ways whereby we freely speak
With those whose doctrine calls for blood
Of innocents the streets to flood.

O God of Right, help us to know
When worshippers become a foe
Because they parley not for peace,
Their secret scheming never cease.

O God of Right, help us endure
Whatever must be to secure
Some hope for those to terror born
When death to infidels is sworn.

O God of Right, give us the strength
To fight throughout the breadth and length
Of all the lands where terror reigns
To kill it and remove its chains.