

TO LOOK FOR GOD

Words and Music by
James L. Clark

JOHN IX

Tune Name: BLIND NO MORE
8.8.8.8. [D]

1. To look for God and see Him not, But feel the sod on eyes of blot,
2. To look with - in, one's soul to see, And mark the sin if guilt there be,
3. To look with- out, all souls to see, And see the doubt or fears there be,

To trust God's son, o - bey His word, His will be done, though deemed ab - surd;
Or find in - side tran- quill - i - ty With naught to hide, or shame to flee;
See mis - er - y with no re - lief, Or van - i - ty of un - be - lief;

In faith to lave the clay - bound eyes, And thus to save what nev - er dies,
To judge the sight, thus judge one's soul, See boon or blight, the parts, the whole,
To judge the sight, thus set the goal To purge the blight, the parts make whole,

With God - ward look, through faith-cleared sight, God's new - born book His own must write.
With in - ward look, to self not blind, God's form - ing book His own must mind.
With out - ward look, to no page blind, God's world-torn book His own must bind.
